

SYSTEM ARCHITECTURE

These components work together to enable a seamless conversational experience where users can interact with the AI avatar through speech input, receive personalized responses, and obtain tailored recommendations based on their identity and previous interactions.